how

- CBE partners with world class organizations and government sponsors to bring this opportunity to our students: Alliance Française, Instituto Cervantes and the German Central Agency for Schools Abroad.
- These partners are supporting the training of teachers, the preparation of students, and the administrations of the exams.

what

- The DELF (Diplôme d'études en langue française) is an official diploma awarded by the National Ministry of Education of France and recognized around the world.
- It is based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) www.coe.int/t/dg4/linguistic/
- The French exams are currently used in over 160 countries in the world
- The DELF exam assesses all four language competencies - oral production, written production, listening comprehension and written comprehension.
- Students receive a lifelong diploma upon successful completion at each level.

why

- Work and travel in French milieu
- Measure and certify your French skills
- Obtain a language diploma valid throughout the world
- Enhance your resume
- Study at a French university
